

Alex Kim – Compliance Specialist
Extension, 177

Bachelor of Arts in Economics from the University of Virginia; Charlottesville, VA (Class of '11)

Alex Kim has been at the National Accrediting Commission of Career Arts & Sciences, Inc. (NACCAS) since October 2011. His duties include analyzing various responses submitted by institutions, monitoring institutional compliance with NACCAS' outcome thresholds and Federal cohort default rates, and helping to oversee NACCAS' Annual Report. His work experience has been primarily with his Family, working as a manager at Old Bridge Exxon and Mrs. K's Carwash. Having been in the retail industry working primarily in sales, he has developed extensive customer service expertise and the ability to think analytically in tough situations to come to mutually beneficial outcomes.
