

Brittany Burnett – NACCAS Document Compliance Specialist
Extension, 169

Bachelor of Science in Family Studies from Miami University, Oxford, Ohio.

Brittany Burnett has been with the National Accrediting Commission of Cosmetology Arts & Sciences, Inc. (NACCAS) since January 2009. She manages continuous paperwork and customer service for 140+ cosmetology schools in the states of Arkansas, Georgia, Louisiana, and Missouri. She travels and leads evaluation teams to over 50 cosmetology schools each year and writes reports on the findings of the teams. She corresponds with schools on compliance with the NACCAS Standards and Criteria. Prior to joining NACCAS she spent three years working in the social work sector. Her tasks included advocating for abused and neglected youths, providing crisis outreach, advocacy, and supportive intervention to clients with opiate addictions and severe mental health disorders, interviewing clients for public assistance eligibility, and maintaining extensive amounts of paperwork for each client being served.
