

Dr. Tony Mirando – NACCAS Executive Director
Extension, 154

Bachelor of Science in Liberal Studies from S.U.N.Y, Albany, New York.

Master of Science in Organizational Leadership and Innovation-Marymount University, Arlington, Virginia.

Doctorate in Chiropractic from Sherman College, Spartanburg, South Carolina.

Dr. Mirando has been the Executive Director of the National Accrediting Commission of Cosmetology Arts & Sciences, Inc. (NACCAS) since March, 2008. He has over twenty-six years of proven performance and effective management techniques across an array of industries, including 9 years in association management and 5 years in accreditation. Has been the Chairman of the regulatory licensing board for Chiropractic in the District of Columbia for eight years, in '09-'10 was selected as the Primary Non-Federal Negotiator representing all the national accrediting agencies at the Department of Education Negotiated Rulemaking Committee hearings on "Program Integrity" in Washington, D.C. In addition, was Vice President of the Straight Chiropractic Academic Standards Association (SCASA), a specialized chiropractic accrediting agency, and was an Instructor and facilitator in the principals of Organizational Business Development and Operations for the University of Phoenix, Reston, Virginia.