

Ken Young – NACCAS – Professional Services Commissioner

During his 31 years in the Cosmetology Industry Ken Young has managed salons, schools, and product distributorships. He is a salon owner Hotheads in Oklahoma City, and licensed cosmetology instructor. He is co-founder and co-producer of the Hair Boyz Hair Expo, a regional trade show for cosmetologists.

Ken is a member and past state president of the NCA, a former & current Salon Owner Commissioner with NACCAS, an Oklahoma State Board of Cosmetology member, a former Treasurer and Regional Director for National Interstate Council of State Boards of Cosmetology (NIC). Ken is a published author writing for Milady Publishing (28 Practice Hairstyles and four other technical books) and is a member of the Milady advisory board.

Ken has served a 5 year term as a salon owner commissioner from 1998 to 2002. He was appointed to fill a seat that had been vacated in October of 2007. He has served as chair of the Academic Institutional Changes Committee since 2008 and has been a file review team chair since 2008.