

Ms. Mary Gail Lowery – NACCAS - Commissioner Representing the Public Interest.
Masters degree in Educational Leadership from Auburn University of Alabama
Masters degree in Business Education from Troy State University in Alabama
Bachelor of Science degree in Marketing from Auburn University

Ms. Mary Gail Lowery served as an Academic Evaluator for the National Accrediting Commission of Career Arts & Sciences, Inc. (NACCAS) she is also a NACCAS Appeals Panel Review Team member. She is an Educational Specialist for the Accrediting Council for Independent Colleges and Schools (ACICS), located in Washington, D.C. and the Accrediting Bureau of Health Education Schools (ABHES), located in Falls Church, VA. Ms. Lowery has served as an evaluator in Fashion, Marketing, Management, and Business Programs at approximately 85 post-secondary institutions across the United States and Puerto Rico over the past eight years. She has been a post-secondary instructor in some capacity since 1992. She served as State Director of SkillsUSA-VICA including Cosmetology Programs at the secondary and post secondary levels.

Ms. Lowery retired as an Education Specialist for the Department of Education in Alabama for Career/Technical Education. She provided professional development activities and technical update seminars for improvement of instruction in Career/Technical Education programs.