

William M. Church - Chairman, NACCAS Commission
Bachelor of Arts, Comprehensive Social Studies, University of Akron
Master of Arts, Secondary School Administration, University of Akron

Mr. Church has been a NACCAS Commissioner for the past 5 years, serving as its Chairman for the past 2 years. He has over 28 years of experience in the proprietary school sector, having held the position of Director, Director of Education, Admissions Rep., and Vice-President of Academic Affairs.

Mr. Church has been a school owner since 1989, owning all, or part of both Cosmetology Schools and Business Schools. He has also served on evaluation teams, having evaluated over 50 schools over the years. Also during this time, he was an adjunct professor in the University of Akron's Communication Department for a period of 15 years.

Among his positions held over the years, Mr. Church served as the President of the American Association of Cosmetology Schools (AACCS) from 2000 to 2001. He served as a Councilman in his hometown for a period of 8 years. He also taught courses for the Career Institute, Master Educator series to cosmetology instructors throughout the United States. Early in his career he was a high school teacher at Cuyahoga Falls High School in Ohio.

Mr. Church is a proud veteran having served with the U.S. Air Force for 4 active years before being honorably discharged. His specialty field at this time was gathering information for an Air Force Intelligence Unit serving in both England and Pakistan.

Over the years Mr. Church has become familiar with both Regional and National Accrediting Agencies.