On Being an Evaluator

Interested in becoming a NACCAS evaluator or wonder what a NACCAS evaluator does? This article aims to share with you the qualifications, the experiences, and the benefits of being a NACCAS evaluator.

There are three categories of NACCAS peer evaluators: practitioner, academic, and school owner/administrator. The practitioner should be qualified in one or more of the many fields within the scope of NACCAS (i.e. Massage Therapy, Cosmetology, Barbering, Esthetics, etc.). The practitioner evaluator must maintain a current practitioner license and demonstrate abiding interest in the field. The academic evaluator must have expertise and teaching experience in post-secondary education, knowledge of pedagogy and the development of curriculum, and recent industry involvement. The school owner/administrator evaluator must have a minimum of two years experience in a NACCAS- accredited school that has been accredited a minimum of two years. Be currently active in school operations or have five years experience in an administrative position in a NACCAS- accredited school and demonstrate industry involvement.

As a NACCAS evaluator you get to travel the United States and sometimes Puerto Rico. The amount of travel is at your preference.

On the first day of an evaluation trip you travel to your destination and meet with your evaluation team.

The following days are either school evaluation days or travel days between school evaluations. A school evaluation involves meeting school staff, touring the school facility, and gathering information through review of documents, interviews, and general observation. Typically a school evaluation is no longer than a standard work day.

An honorarium of $175 is earned for each school evaluation day or travel day between school evaluations and there is a per diem of $75 per day. However, the true benefit is the opportunity to meet new people, visit new places, and witness the many different educational ideas and concepts utilized in the operations of NACCAS accredited schools across the nation.

NACCAS is in need of evaluators of all types: school owner/administrator, academic, and practitioner (particularly Massage Therapists and Barbers). We also need Spanish speaking evaluators.
