

Job Demand Survey 2007 – Results for District of Columbia

Since 1990, NACCAS has commissioned several Job Demand Surveys, to provide quantitative data on cosmetology careers, earnings potential, and job openings. The most recent survey, completed in May 2007, compiles data from 6,203 salons responding to a national survey.

The 2007 Job Demand Survey results indicate that salons in District of Columbia plan to hire 1,333 new employees in the next twelve months. The average annual salary for a salon professional in District of Columbia is $44,954. This amount does not include tips and gratuities. Nationally, the average salon professional’s salary is $35,973.

Most importantly, 78 percent of District of Columbia salon owners who attempted to hire new employees in 2006 said they were unable to find properly-trained applicants. This means that jobs would be immediately available for salon professionals.
